

OBJECTS IN ECKHARDT'S OLD ALCHEMY LAB Gp 15.6

INFORMATION IN ECKHARDT'S OLD ALCHEMY LAB.

Everything is written on parchments and in old crumbling tomes.)

1/ ECKHARDT'S FIRST ENCOUNTER WITH THE NEPHILIM.EXTRA

"Ninth day of this nine month 1344. At last, seventeen years labour rewarded. The Nephilim, the Grigori, truly exist! Am allowed to enter their hidden realm in the innermost desert regions of Anatolie. In their city below the ground I meet with the supreme Elders. They have a task for my secret skills and offer me a prize beyond reckoning. That of prolonged life!"

EXTRA*

"There be none in excess of five and fifty still alive. A great race, come to this sad and tragic decline. But a great change is prophesied."

2/ PACT WITH THE NEPHILIM.

" Autumn 1345 Prague. Am returned from Anatolie. The pact with the Nephilim is made. I have 100 summers to prepare for the revivifying of their bloodline. And the prophecies say it will be so. By my help the Nephilim will rule their earthly realm again."

EXTRA*

"Given into my care were five samples of purified prima materia metals, a godly alchemic prize indeed. Bestowed by the Nephilim Elders the samples will aid me in my ordained tasks."

*EXTRA

"The potency of the purified metals is astonishing. My own grievous wounds, received in my testing by the Elders, are already healed and I grow in strength with each sunrise. I could well become immortal!"

3/ THE SYMBOLS & THE SANGLYPH - INSTRUMENT OF BETRAYAL.

"Darkening days of 1359. I shall not serve the revitalised Nephilim but rule them! Let the dark angels beware. I have begun the forging of the Sanglyph, a dread instrument of the Nephilim's undoing."

"1425. By the means of human sacrifice the Sanglyph is complete! I have today cast the Nephilim metals into five symbols of power that comprise its separate parts."

"Each symbol I have matched to the etheric harmonies of five elements within the body of man. And so, sulphur, iron, copper, phosphorus and potassium!"

4/ THE GLOVE & HARVESTING

"The Glove, attuned in like fashion is almost complete. It is both protection and weapon of terror. With it I shall harvest vital metals and essences from the bodies of man for the Sleeper's awakening."

5/ THE SLEEPER or CUBICULUM NEPHILI

"My every attempt to extract ichoric essences from captive Nephilim have come to nought. Only the Cubiculum Nephili may serve my purposes. The fabled cask of the Sleeper must be found. It lies buried still somewhere in furthest Anatolie."

"By the Glove and Sanglyph combined shall I bestir the Sleeper to my bidding. The time draws near."

6/ FIVE ICON PAINTINGS TO CONCEAL THE SYMBOLS OF POWER.

"Until I am in full readiness, the several parts of the Sanglyph shall be concealed. I have fashioned five Icon Images of wood in which they may be hid."

*EXTRA

"With the Sleeper my path to becoming the Golden Lion will be achieved. The prophecy is mine alone to fulfil."

'Through the Golden Lion the Nephilim will enslave the sons of man and inherit the Earth.'

7/ THE THIRD SHARD

"The thrice cursed Shard of the Lux Veritatis maggots I have placed beyond reach. None will again deny me my victory whilst it is far from the light. I will rule as the Golden Lion over the new Nephilim and their earthly dominions!"
