

LETTER 1

Dear Lara

I don't enclose a photo as words speak volumes more I find. I was born not long after you on 23.12.68, like you I grew up in Wimbledon although I didn't make to the High school (tho' many of my friends did), something to do with bad behaviour! I also got sent away to school at the age of 12 but was forcibly ejected at 13 (again something to do with bad behaviour). My parents live in a large house (but not quite a mansion) in Surrey, and they have also rejected my values as I have theirs (tho' the pursuits they rejected were of a more pyschedelic nature than yours, tho' just as adventurous - at least I thought they were). I am 5'8" just 1" shorter than you and also have brown hair and eyes, although i must confess you beat me on the vital statistics front - mine are 36C-28-38, however what the wonders of modern wardrobe and camera technique (and a brilliant director of course) I'm sure I could pass myself off as svelte as you - I've no acting experience, but my mother always said she was convinced I'd end up an actress as "your whole life is an act" (!) Whadayathink? Let me know.

Yours sincerely
(well quite)

Sophie Kelly

LETTER 2

Hi there Lara,

I think that what you're doing for women, including yourself, is great. You just go out there and do your thing, no one to tell you where to go, what to do, when you can do it, or when they want you around! Admittedly, it must be pretty lonely sometimes, but when you come home, you've always got your butler (what is his name by the way). It just goes to show, if you want something enough, not matter what it takes, you will get it whether you're male or female. You only have to look at yourself and the way you live to see that. Nice house, specially constructed gym and assault course, quad bike track, swimming pool, and wonderful wonderful decor! Not to mention all of the beautiful and unique artifacts which you own as a result of all of your hard work and effort.

I look forward to your new movie! I'm sure it's gonna be a blast, just like all of your adventures!

Yours,

Charlotte Turton (14)
Kingswinford, England

To Lara,

I am a great fan of yours, and I am really interested in the Tomb Raider games, they are hugely successful and are brilliant. My brothers and I play on Tomb Raider 3 every day, and we intend to buy every Tomb Raider game made. As the games progress, they get better and better, as do the weapons, moves and storylines. Good luck with future games, and keep up the good work!

To Lara Croft,

My brothers and I all like the Tomb Raider series, and we have TR1,2 & 3. We think the graphics in them are excellent, and it's our favourite game on the PC. We think the dinosaurs are an excellent addition to the games, as it makes them interesting, exciting and scary.

Dear Lara,

I think you're the best ever person, and I want to be like you! I even wanted to put Lara Croft on my Hot-mail address, but someone had already done that. I have Tomb Raider 1, 2 and 3. What is the name of that butler that follows you around on Tomb 2 and 3? Me and my friend think he's really spooky!

I thought you were American at first, but I soon found out I was wrong, and that your English, like me

I shall write you another letter soon, O.K?
